24 February 2021

Now that 2020 is behind us, MHT is gearing up to start our touring for 2021. For those of you who are already registered and also for those exploring travel opportunities, we will be adjusting tour dates to include as many as possible on our 2021 calendar. As much of our trip planning is now dependent upon restrictions and vaccination progress made by our tour destinations, some of the dates will be a moving target.

The possibility of going to Iwo Jima is still being decided by the Japanese government and that of our partners in Guam. We feel it is likely that we will be able to go in the late September/October time frame.

Vietnam has begun the vaccination process, but it is unlikely for us to be able to travel there before the middle of May. If the May timeframe is not available, we will move those trips to August.

Many European destinations are still currently on semi-lockdown, so it is unlikely we will be able to go in May or June. We will look for dates in the fall, based on their restrictions at that time, and will firm up planning in the coming months.

Our Guadalcanal/Tarawa trip scheduled for August will be rescheduled to November.

Currently all 2022 trips will go as scheduled.

Thank you,

The MHT Team
