

MILITARY™ HISTORICAL TOURS, INC.

...WHERE HISTORY COMES ALIVE!

MHT's Virus Response

Military Historical Tours, Inc. has provided quality tours to military battlefields and historic sites for the past 33 years. It has continually maintained its core values that underscore its commitments to inspiring those interested in military history and dedication to educating future generations on our nation's military heritage.

These enduring values guide MHT as it faces the difficult challenge of remaining viable and in business, despite the current situation involving the COVID-19/Coronavirus.

Just as was stated in World War I when U.S. Marines arrived at the front, only to be told that all Allied forces were to pull back to Paris in the face of a German onslaught. The response at that time, "Retreat hell, we just got here" is just as applicable now as it was then. MHT does not intend to 'retreat' and will remain a major player in the travel business far into the foreseeable future.

"We sincerely thank those loyal customers who have booked with MHT and for standing with us as we strive to reschedule tours that will now occur after the pandemic has subsided," stated MHT's CEO and President Colonel Warren J. Wiedhahn, USMC, Retired. "I personally appreciate the perseverance and patience of those who have decided to stay with MHT. We promise to provide you the finest educational, historical, and cultural tours of battlefields and military historic sites in the future."

MHT is continuing to monitor the situation and has initiated precautions to ensure healthy and safe tours around the world. As is always the case, the safety of its customers is MHT's #1 priority. Continue to put your trust in MHT as you plan for future travel. Those who are interested in our tours during the late summer or fall of this year are advised to check our website at www.miltours.com for details.
