Guadalcanal Itinerary

14 May Tue—(Day 1) GUADALCANAL

Depart Fiji for Guadalcanal and arrive at historic "Henderson Field". We transfer to our hotel, with time to settle in and refresh before departing for our Honiara briefing and orientation from a vantage point atop Mount Austen. Sites pointed out will be "Red Beach," the site of the 1942 landing; Henderson Field, Edson's Ridge, the Tenaru River (Alligator Creek); Lunga Point, and other pertinent sites. Later we will tour the U.S. Memorial on Skyline Ridge for another panoramic view of the island from this vantage point. Sites pointed out will be Tu-Gavutulagi, Tanambogo, and Florida the lands. Also, we will orient on Sa-Island, "Iron Sound": Bottom as well as terrain features ashore. We will see Point Cruz, the Matanikau River, Cape Esperance, and other key sites that played significant roles in thie landmark land and sea battle. Hotel: King Solomon (B/L/D)

15 May Wed—(Day 2) GUADALCANAL

This morning we will visit the Solomon Islands Cultural Centre, the Vilu Open Air WWII Museum, and the busy city markets. We travel east to Tetere, current home to a massive Amtrac "Boneyard" left behind at the end of the war. We return west to visit Red Beach, site of the initial landings around Henderson Field. Hotel: King Solomon (B/L/D)

16 May Thur—(Day 3) GUADALCANAL

We depart today for a tour of the Botanical Gardens to enjoy the tranquility of the many ECO walks and visit an authentic working village. After lunch, we will spend time on Bloody Ridge, known also as Edson's Ridge, where the Japanese were halted in their attempts to reach Henderson Field, in one of the pivotal battles of the Pacific War. From here we view "Fighter One", the field from which the Cactus Air Force and famous aviators like Joe Foss flew. We also visit the Betikama Museum and Cultural Center, an excellent place to purchase local souvenirs, before our Farewell Dinner. Hotel: King Solomon (Meals: B/L/D)

17 May Fri - (Day 4) GUADALCANAL
